Drop Spindle workshop with Cat Lee

Ages 16-adult

Saturday March 21 10 am - noon

$30 registration includes materials

The $15 materials fee included in this workshop fee pays for a kit which includes wool roving, a drop spindle and instructions

Learn how yarn was spun in pre-industrial times, even before the spinning wheel. Yarns and threads have been part of human existence since man realized he did not need to wear animal skin. The process now of course is done mechanically, but with the exact same concepts (only faster).

Abacadabra! Turn a Vest into a Handbag with Kathy Levy

Ages 16-adult

Saturday, March 28, 9:30 am-4:30 pm

$55 registration includes materials

Bring your seam ripper, sewing machine and basic sewing skills and start recycling! Deconstruct an old vest and cleverly transform it into a purse. Bring your own vest or choose from those provided by the instructor. If time permits, students will also learn to fashion a fabric flower to decorate their new bag.

Posted Patches: Fabric and Stitched Postcards with Judith Kessler Smith

Ages 16-adult

Sunday March 29, 2-4:30 pm

$25 registration includes materials

Bring your sewing machine, cutting implements, a half yard of light-colored fabric and fabric scraps. Create unique fabric postcards, making art in a very small format while exploring techniques, materials and different ideas! Use up those little pieces of special fabrics, try all sorts of embellishments and unusual color combinations, and exchange these little gems with other artists or delight an unsuspecting friend!

Silk Painting Workshop with Susan Skove

Ages 13-adult

Saturday, April 4, 9:30 am-12:30 pm

Registration $30 includes materials

Create a scintillating silk scarf! Skove will demonstrate and teach various silk painting techniques. Experiment with scrap silk strips to build confidence, and then paint your own 22" square scarf. Returning students welcome!
