TAA Name Tag Play Day

Sunday, March 14, 2010 12:00-4:00

Carole Brown, Sandra Nobel & Helen Murrell

CMA Classroom B & C

We envision a fun filled playday where each person will have the opportunity to express their individual personality through their name tag. Our creative personalities will allow us to stamp, paint, glue, sew, embroider, felt, stencil or whatever else comes to mind, as we make our masterpieces. You will find the medium of your choice to explore the possibilities.

We have included a supply list (to be sent with registration) but please remember, anything goes. We have so many scraps and notions and just plain fun junk to share. If you can't think of anything to bring; please come anyway. If you have too much of something, bring enough to share.

This is definitely going to be a "Think out of the box experience." Bring a sack lunch if desired and your enthusiasm! Supply fee $3, payable at class. Led by Carole Brown, Sandra Nobel and Helen Murrell.
